1.6.1.44 The Facts Behind The Messages

Wednesday 2nd November 2022, 13:00 – 14:30

This Dangerous goods webinar will examine the context behind the messages and announcements you may have recently seen concerning the change in law that requires all consigners, as of 31 12 22, to appoint a Dangerous Goods safety advisor.

This webinar is open to BADGP members and non-members alike.

Our Presenters

Three esteemed members of the British Association of Dangerous Goods Professionals, Mark Spence, Les Richings and Andy Holton will provide the aforementioned context, explain the legislation change and state the benefits that appointing a dangerous goods safety advisor can bring to your business.

Mark Spence

- What are dangerous goods?
- What is a DGSA?

Les Richings

- What does a DGSA do?
- What are the changes?

Andy Holton

- Who has to appoint a DGSA and why?

A general question and answer session will be performed where our webinar attendees will be able to ask our panel of experts questions relating to this legal requirement.

The British Association of Dangerous Goods Professionals represents Dangerous Goods safety advisors and fellow Dangerous Goods professionals who are operational in all Dangerous Goods transport codes.
